

Bible Readings

*In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Genesis 1:1

*God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning—the sixth day. Genesis 1:31

*¹⁹ For the creation waits in eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed. ²⁰ For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope ²¹ that ^[a] the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the freedom and glory of the children of God. (Romans 8:19-21)

*But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, where righteousness dwells. (2Peter 3:13)

Notes

Topics for Discussion

1. In the past, what did you think of when you imagined Christians living in Heaven?
2. What does 2 Peter 3:13 tell us about our eternal home?
3. As we remember what "earth" was like before the fall into sin (and as we remember the good things that remain after the fall), what might we expect of the new creation?
4. What sorts of things will not be a part of the New Earth? (Rev 21:1-8)
